

Young Scientist Meet

The Department of physics, Nehru Arts & Science College, Kanhangad in collaboration with Indian Association of Physics Teachers RC 14 conducted a one day programme titled "Young Scientist meet" on 21 November, 2016 at the department of physics. The workshop was inaugurated at 9.30 am by Dr. K. P. Santhosh, HOD, Physics Department, Kannur University. Prof. K. B. Anitha, Head of Department of Physics, NAS College gave the welcome speech. 60 participants who were students of NIT Suratkal, Central University of Kerala, Ananthathertha Campus, Kannur University, PG students and teachers of Nehru college were present. After the inauguration, Dr. K. Madhu, Asst Professor, UC College, Aluva (Secretary, IAPT, RC 14, Kerala) gave an invited talk on "String theory". After the tea break at 11.00 am each research scholar/scientist presented 15 minutes powerpoint presentation of their research topics. At 3.15 pm Coordinator, Dr. K. M. Udayanandan, Associate Professor, Dept of Physics, NAS College and President, IAPT, Kerala chapter gave vote of thanks. The participants enjoyed the presentations and discussions followed by each presentation.

